

How to Cite Print Sources In APA Style

Further detail on these citations can be found in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed.) 2001.

Books

Books with one author:

Smith, J. B. (1995). History of shot putting in North Carolina: My guide to sports around here.
Lincolnton, NC: Litton.

Books with more than one author:

Dee, T. W. and Dumm, T. H. (2001). Our lives with Alice (2nd ed.). Chicago: Cheshire.

Books with an editor:

Alexander, G. A. (Ed.). (2004). Masters of psychology. New York: Columbia University.

Chapter in a book

Lauver, L. T. (1967). Decorating the restored home. In T. K. Miller (Ed.), Historic architecture and design (pp108-718). Greensboro, NC: Aycock.

Encyclopedia or dictionary entry

Jones, T. T. (Ed.). (1979). Linemen of the 1970s. In The encyclopedia of football and football players. (3rd ed., Vol 3, pp 101-103). New York: Greenley.

English translation of a book

Shamas, J. X. (1982). A short history of my land. (L. S. Short, Trans.). Los Angeles: Harper and Row.

Journal, Newspaper and Magazine Articles

Further detail on these citations can be found in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed.) 2001.

Journal article with one author

Sellers, P. A. (2003). Student achievement in colleges. Leadership in Higher Education, 23, 192-200.

Journal article, paginated by issue

Detweiler, J. S. (1993). Inner city crime and amusement parks. Tourism and Recreation Journal, 34(3), 10-15.

Magazine article

Jones, J. L. and Walter, S. E. (2003, October 21). Touring Washington with the family. Smithsonian, 182, 23-25.

Daily newspaper article

Greensboro crowd welcomes college students back to town. (2004, August 23). News and Record. p.B1

Citation of a work discussed in a secondary source:

If you did not read the quoted work, then cite the secondary source only in the reference list.

Journal Supplement

Widner, W. E., & Jones, E. W. (2001). Graduating from high school to college. Journal of Higher Education, 34(Suppl. 1), 5-16.